INVENTOR'S STATEMENT REGARDING ERRORS UPON WHICH REISSUE IS BASED,
INCLUDING STATUS OF CLAIMS AND SUPPORT FOR CLAIM CHANGES

U.S. Patent No. 6,247,484 (the '484 Patent) contains errors that resulted in the patentee claiming less than he had a right to claim in the patent. In addition, there are two typographical errors. All errors which are being corrected in the present reissue application up to the time of filing of this statement arose without any deceptive intention on the part of the applicant. The following is an explanation of the broadening of the claims.

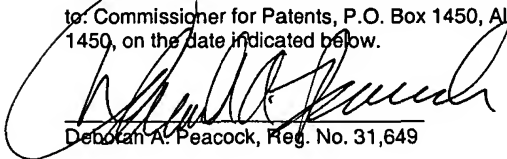

Original claims 1-20 are pending. Applicant wishes to amend claims 9 and 15, where in both claims the word "cave" should have been "eave". These were typographical errors.

Applicant also adds new claims 21-134 in order to broaden the scope of the subject matter that Applicant regards as his own invention, in that patentee claimed less than he had a right to claim. Claims 21-22 are dependent claims directed toward the original claim 1. Claim 23 is an independent claim regarding a load-accommodating canopy and serves to broaden the scope of original claim 1 to provide a more accurate and generalized claim. Claims 24-58 are dependent claims. Claim 59 is an independent claim also regarding a load-accommodating canopy and serves to broaden the scope of original claim 1 to provide a more accurate and generalized claim. Claims 60-90 are dependent claims. Claim 91 is an independent claim also regarding a load-accommodating canopy and serves to broaden the scope of original claim 1 to provide a more accurate and generalized claim. Claims 92-121 are dependent claims. Claim 122 is an independent claim regarding a method for discharging a load from a canopy structure and serves to broaden the scope of the original claims. Claims 123-134 are dependent claims. All claims have support throughout the specification, primarily in column 5, lines 14-65.

Such new claims would have accompanied the application as originally filed for the '484 Patent, but were omitted due to error made without any deceptive intent.
